Climate Competent Boards: Why and How?

CalPERS and the NYC Pension Funds cordially invite you to attend a member hosted meeting held in conjunction with the Council of Institutional Investors Winter 2017 Conference.

Please RSVP below.

Global investors are focused on the long-term business risks and opportunities presented by climate change. This poses new expectations of board responsibility for identifying and managing climate risk and opportunity in their long-term strategy. This session will start a conversation between investors and company directors to consider the implications of climate change risk and opportunity for governance, board evaluation, strategic planning, risk, compensation, and capital allocation decisions.

Confirmed speakers:

Michael Garland, Asst Comptroller, Corporate Governance and Responsible Investment, Office of the New York City Comptroller

Edward Kamonjoh, Executive Director, 50/50 Climate Project

Sophie L'Helias, Director, Kering; President and Founder, LeaderXXChange, Co-founder ICGN

Paul E. Rowsey III, President and CEO, Compatriot Capital, Inc.; Board Chair, Ensco Plc. and E2M Partners; Board, Powder Corp.

Anne Simpson, Investment Director, Sustainability, CalPERS

Elisse B. Walter, Director, Occidental Petroleum and Sustainability Accounting Standards Board; Former SEC Chair
